

Let's Talk About School Growth: A League of Women Voters Community Forum

Twenty-five percent of our population is under the age of 18, and the parents of these young people likely chose Falls Church for its renowned school system. However, the City's population is far more diverse, including seniors, empty nesters, and singles, all of whom have interests and needs beyond the school system. How can the City best serve its diverse population, while maintaining its award-winning schools?

Come to this community-wide forum, hosted by the League of Women Voters of Falls Church, which offers a discussion about options going forward for our schools and the City's budget, taxes, and development policies. School leaders and City staff will talk about significant student population growth, its sources, and its effect on the community. Afterward the floor will be open for your questions, answers, and ideas.

Date & Time: Wednesday, March 20, 2013; 7:30 - 9:00 p.m.
Location: Falls Church City Council Chambers, 300 Park Avenue
Speakers: Representatives of School, School Board, and City
Moderator: Edith Holmes Snyder, president, LWVFC
