LWVFC-VPIS Water Forum

The League of Women Voters of Falls Church and the Village Preservation and Improvement Society will co-sponsor a forum September 8 on the upcoming referendum on the sale of the city's water system to Fairfax County.

The referendum, which will appear on the November 5 election ballot, will seek voter approval to sell the Falls Church Water Utility to Fairfax Water for $40 million. The terms of the sale, which were negotiated with the assistance of a federal mediator, have been approved by the Falls Church City Council, the Fairfax Water Board of Directors and the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors.

At the voter forum, City Manager Wyatt Shields and Charles Murray, General Manager of Fairfax Water will present the referendum and discuss the process through which the agreement with Fairfax County was reached. A question-and-answer session will follow their presentation.

Sunday, Sept. 8

3 p.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Senior Center at the Falls Church Community Center
223 Little Falls Street

LWVFC-VPIS Candidate Forum

The League of Women Voters of Falls Church and Village Improvement and Preservation Society will sponsor a non-partisan forum for Falls Church City Council candidates at 7:30 p.m. on September 25. The event will be held in the Council Chambers at City Hall, 300 Park Avenue, and will be moderated by Marjorie Hobart of the League of Women Voters of Arlington.

Five candidates are vying for four seats in the November 5 election, which will be the first time City Council candidates will be on the same ballot as candidates for Virginia legislative districts and statewide races in Virginia. During the forum, Council candidates will be asked to address randomly selected questions on current issues. Audience members will also get the opportunity to submit questions.
